

THE WAR CRY.

AND OFFICIAL GAZETTE OF THE SALVATION ARMY IN CANADA AND NEWFOUNDLAND.

International Headquarters:
101 Queen Victoria St., London, E.C.

WILLIAM BOOTH, Founder.

Canada West Headquarters:
Confederation Life Bldg., Winnipeg

No. 1791. BRAMWELL BOOTH, General.

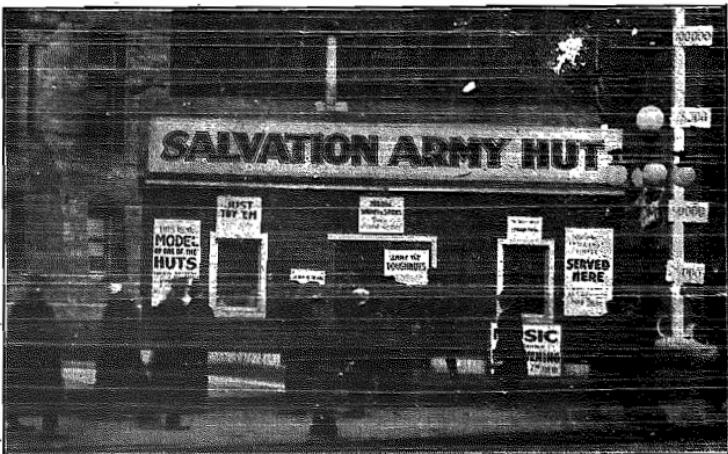

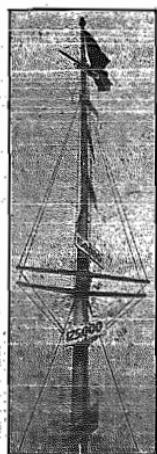

TORONTO, FEBRUARY 8, 1919.

Charles Sowton, Commissioner. Price Five Cents

THE RED SHIELD IN ACTION AT HAMILTON

This large building, formerly the New American Hotel, has been taken for a Soldiers' Hostel

AT THE CITY HALL, TORONTO

(1) The Flag at the top; (2) One of the Huts on the City Hall Lawn

Soldiers of our God, arise!
Smites the drawing sword,
Shake the shudder from your eyes,
The light is drawing clearer.
It is no longer dim by day,
When the heathen millions die,
Let the broadest banner fly,
And take the field for Jesus.

See the braves hosts of hell,
Art and power employing;
More than human tongue can tell,
Blood-bought souls destroying.
Hell from ruin's ghastly road,
Vainly strove to hold his head,
Forward O ye sons of hell,
And dare or die for Jesus!

Warriors of the bleeding Lamb,
Army of Salvation;
Spread the fame of Gilgal's balm,
Conquer every nation.
Raise the glorious standard higher,
Stand on high and shout for fire,
Forward march with Blood-red fire,
And win the world for Jesus.

HOW TO BE SAVED

Ask God to show you your need of Salvation, and the danger you are in till you have found it.

Ask God to help you to understand that Jesus died for you.

Show God you are sorry for your sins by giving them up.

Ask God to forgive you for Christ's sake.

Do not rest night or day till you have the assurance of the Holy Spirit that you are saved.

THE SEARCHLIGHT

I heard the voice of the Lord saying, Whom shall I send, and who will go for us? Then said I, Here am I to send me.

The harvest truly is plenteous, but the labourers are few; pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he will send forth labourers into His harvest.

Oh, but learn a little wisdom

I have said truly that life and death are in the power of the tongue. We often hear persons say what a terrible weapon the tongue is. It is true that it is a part of God's work in a Salvation Army Corps: "Oh I cannot, I have no ability," or "I have no influence with anyone." Yet everyone has the ability to use this small but powerful organ, the tongue, and all do use it, and the influence of these spoken words will last forever.

Good and Ill Effects

One could almost use the space allowed for this little article with quotations from the Bible about the good and ill-effects of the tongue, and the words it utters, and outside of Scripture, the voluminous mass of printed matter could be collected of both pro and con on the same subject.

An unchristian tongue is still doing much harm, and sanctified ones much good, may help us to realize in a short time the right and wrong use of language.

We use our tongues in a wrong way, when we repeat things we have heard, when we know that it will cause bitterness and heartbreak. I know people who have a love to repeat something that they know, but the person of whom it has been said, "Some who have a right to be applied in a case of this kind, that is worthy of consideration. "Before I repeat something I have heard, let me ask

Three Questions

We use our tongues in a wrong way when we repeat things we have heard, when we know that it will cause bitterness and heartbreak. I know people who have a love to repeat something that they know, but the person of whom it has been said, "Some who have a right to be applied in a case of this kind, that is worthy of consideration. "Before I repeat something I have heard, let me ask

"STARTLE THE SINNER!"

A CALL FOR STIRRING SALVATION WHICH SHALL TRUMPH OVER HUMAN WEAKNESS

B EWARE of that tired feeling." At the same time pass over his head it is customary for a man to knock off, to take less and less share in violent exercise, to put up his feet on occasion and rest, to choose the smooth way, even in speech. And there is no doubt that a great temptation for some Salvationists will be to make concessions to our age.

Shining Examples

We do not here particularly refer to the veterans amongst us, for we have many braved warriors who lead in devotion and active service for God, as shining example to our young people, but to the fact that we are growing up and that some would say we ought to be at certain things which were tolerated in our youth—this particularly in the matter of our zealous fighting against sin. This we shall need to combat unflinchingly.

What a need there is for red-hot effort for the salvation of souls! Our song says truly, "Precious souls are dying." Do you believe it? Dying in the thrall of sin; led captive by the devil; slaves of habit, which never relents, until bit their evil hold until the self-perverse salvation of Jesus died; the dominion of hell sets the soul at liberty. But this day, for lack of the tidings of this grand salvation; they die in the devil-induced coma for lack of some one who will shout, who will startle, who will break in upon them and make them to realize the awful peril of the soul in sin. Can we slacken off while they need our aid?

Go Out and Tell

Christ's dying love on the cross shows the measure of man's necessity; look long at it and then go out to tell of it to all mankind, whether they will hear or not. Bang your drums, shout your loudest, agitate, agitate, agitate! There can be no rest, no peace, no hope without a little wisdom

THE SALVATION SOLDIERS' ARMOURY
A Series of Papers for Soldiers and Recruits, contributed Jointly by Adjutant and Mrs. Alexander Macdonald, of London.

V.—The Power of the Tongue

"Set a watch, O Lord, before my mouth; keep the door of my lips!"—Psalms 119:12.

"The Lord hath given me the tongue of the learned; that I should know how first; it is kind to repeat it;—second; it is wise to repeat it;—third; it is memory to repeat it." Many of us may pass the first two, but how many can say, "Not guilty," to the third? Truly did the wise man say, "A whisperer seareth chief friends."

Go Right One

Again we use our tongues in a wrong way when we fail to tell other people, instead of gains, love direct to the person concerned. Jesus said, "Tell him thy fault before him, and then alone." What terrible strife and divisions would have been avoided if the Master's rule had been observed. I know the Kingdom of God would have been bettered, is not that commandment to be observed as well as any?

I am, I hardly need to point out, the right owner of the tongue. Signify, reverse the foregoing, and speak words of encouragement, of hope or success, without the taint of sin, and without the taint of hell, and coming to Jesus in right and sincere, for the great gift of His salvation. We may be red, red war, war on the strongholds of sin. Up and at the now and always, with no thought of retreating, or compromise, or arbitration. No making of terms with the enemy; unconditional surrenders must be our motto. See the faithful Jesus in the thick of the fight! Shall He be alone?—From the British "Cry"

AN ECHO OF 1914

Travelling from Eastport in London recently were an elderly lady and gentleman who had been in Germany when war was declared. They had planned some of their hymn-singing moments, but none was more so than when the conclusion, all led by Colonel Dinnick, finished in the singing of the Doxology.

"A whirlwind finish," said a "most surprising home-stretch campaign" are terms used by the Daily press to describe the efforts of the last of the four days specifically devoted to the Drive, when the total, from somewhere about the half-way mark, was lifted to over $260,000.

TORONTO HAS A WHIRLWIND FINISH

Red Shield Drive Total for the Queen City is Already $280,000

GREAT ENTHUSIASM AT FINAL GATHERING OF WORKERS—THANKS FOR DEVOTION OF CAMPAIGN COMMITTEE AND GENEROSITY OF PUBLIC—DEMONSTRATION BY GREAT WAR VETERANS' ASSOCIATION

WHY A SEA CAPTAIN DOUBLED HIS DONATION

RAISE GOD from Whom all blessings flow. The gathering of Campaigners and Salvationists with which the Toronto Drive was begun, Ye a conclusion had a most stirring moments, but none was more so than when the conclusion, all led by Colonel Dinnick, finished in the singing of the Doxology.

"A whirlwind finish," said a "most surprising home-stretch campaign" are terms used by the Daily press to describe the efforts of the last of the four days specifically devoted to the Drive, when the total, from somewhere about the half-way mark, was lifted to over $260,000.

Five District Teams

The figures presented showed that the bulk of the money came from the activities of the five District Teams, their receipts being apportioned as follows, with Chairmen of districts: A. R. Auld, $108,200; H. G. Stanton, $40,000; H. B. James, $32,481; R. H. Eason, $13,494; and H. S. Banfield, $14,517.15. In making his report, Mr. Auld, leading chairman, pointed out that $42,159 of his total was taken the day previously by the brokers' team, and that another $25,000 had been produced by three teams "captained by Knights of Columbus."

Included in the totals of the five district teams are the results of the work of the industrial organization which was taken in by the Knights of Columbus, which very kindly contributed $10,000 to the campaign. In making his report, Mr. A. T. Stanley, who has charge of this organization, reported a total of $43,535.58 collected by his five team captains; with more to come. Mr. Stanley added that there are practically 86,000 workers in the factories in which they canvassed, which shows an average of fifty cents per worker.

Maginificent Grand Total

The returns at the time of our closing press show that the grand total will be over two hundred and eighty thousand dollars.

During the campaign, the money given by Major D. B. Hanna, W. F. MacLean, E. R. Wood, J. J. Gibbons, Controller Robbins, and Colonel Noel Marshall, in addition to a most warm personal tribute to the work of the Army by Councillor Peter Wright of the Seamen's and Fishermen's Union, was a most touching course of which he disclosed in a most manly and heart-touching manner that he had himself received help from the Army's Social Institutions at a time of great need. Quotations from these and other addresses given at various meetings of the Campaign Organization will be found below.

Acknowledgement of Generosity

Colonel McMillan, who had been deputed by the Commissioner to officially represent the Organization, made a warm acknowledgement of the generosity of the public and the labours of Controller Robbins, the latter being present. He felt, he said, that not only the Salvationists of the present day, but those who thirty-five years ago laid the foundations of the Organization in Canada, must somehow or other be interested in this Appeal and its magnificent response. The Commissioner said that "the reason why, when misunderstanding and prejudice ruled, but persistent seeking out of 'one's duty and doing it without care as to consequences,' had brought the splendid reward represented by 'this testimony' the citizens of Toronto have given to the Organization." "God Will Be with Us!"

"We would like you to take it from us," continued the Colonel, "that we are, on the one hand, grateful, and on the other humbled. We are grateful for your kindness and generosity; on the other hand, what are we and how can we go about the carrying out of this great responsibility? We say not by might, not in our own strength, but that God who has been with us in the days that are gone, Who stood by us in the days of darkness and hardness, will be with us in these days and help us to carry out the sacred trust that you men of Toronto have placed in our hands."

"I say, in speaking on behalf of Commissioner Richards, and every Salvationist, we are the servants of Him who sent us into this world, to do good to those who are most in need of it." "How inadequate are our words to express our gratitude to those who, headed by our good friend, Colonel Dinnick, organized this Campaign! I cannot go through the list, but they are ever fixed in our minds. Thank you! May God make up to you in your house, and in your hearts, the love and the blessing that makes truly rich in this world and in the world to come."

The Commissioner Speaks

In response to an urgent call for a speech on behalf of the Campaign, the Commissioner, who was evidently not at all at ease, said: "I sincerely thank Colonel Dinnick for the interest he has taken in this Campaign, and all who have had anything to do with it. It has enlarged our vision. We were always big in heart and prepared to do anything we could, but we have learned that money is not the only thing; helping contact with those who know how to pick the pockets of the people as you do (laughter), we have learned our lesson!"

"An instant of the need of an important part of that which is being done is this: that within the past twenty-four hours a child was taken to the doorstep of our Bloor Street Hospital. It will be properly nursed and cared for and fitted for the battle of life."

For Returning Soldiers

"We are going, by the grace of God, and your splendid assistance, to look after the returning soldiers. There is nothing in the world too good for the returning soldier. It is for us to turn to and look after them. The heart of the Salvation Army is to care for all our soldiers, and we will pray for you and for your families."

Colonel Dinnick, for the benefit of the visitor of the evening, Councillor Peter Wright, outlined the objects of the campaign, and went on to say that the like of which had never been seen in the city. A returning sea captain, W. J. Bassett, called to offer the use of his motor for Tag Day. Upon learning that money was not then coming in as quickly as had been anticipated, the visitor wrote out a cheque for $100. Then he turned to the visitors and said: "I am not able to give you the exact amount, but the amount is considerable." The great bulk of the money secured in the Campaign had been contributed by the people—the Salvation Army was of and for the people.

Warm thanks were tendered by the Colonel to the Ontario Government for the help which had been given to the Organization of Resources and men, and particularly for the services of Mr. A. M. Miller, to whom he said, a great deal of the credit for the success of the Campaign was due so far as leadership is concerned.

As already intimated, the proceedings, which were marked throughout by utmost enthusiasm, closed with the singing of the Doxology in roofing fashion.

With Happy Prominence

Among the many other gatherings which have taken place during the Campaign, the rally of the Great War Veterans' Association in the Massey Hall stands out with happy prominence. From all quarters of the city the Veterans marched through the slush of a thaw-out to the hall, to give evidence of their appreciation of what the Salvation Army had been able to do to help them when overseas.

The heartiness of this demonstration of gratitude was touching in the extreme and the Salvation Army representatives who were present were moved beyond expression to find that the efforts of our comrades had won so evidently a large a place in the hearts of the men they had tried to serve.

Major-General Gunn presided, and the speakers of the evening included the Rev. George Adam, Mayor, Church, Controller McBride, and Sergeant E. W. Turley. When a show of hands was called for in regard to helping with the Campaign, the overwhelming response. Extracts from the addresses given at this meeting are also among those below.

The house-to-house canvass carried out by the Veterans on behalf of the Campaign brought in no less a sum than $24,247. The manner in which the campaign was conducted, and the spirit with which it was carried on, the enthusiasm with which it was supported, and the efforts to help the Salvation Army continue its work on behalf of the soldier is beyond all praise.

The nature of the Campaign has been the letters received from many points outside the city, inclosing donations to the fund. Some have come from private individuals, others from church and other organizations, while there have been some from other Provinces, and one from the United States. The total amount received was over a hundred dollars. From Cleveland came a letter written by an American woman, whose son joined the Canadian ranks, and who declared the son had reported so favourably upon his treatment by the Salvation Army that she simply had to make some recognition of their services. Her "mite," as she termed it, was $10.

Donations at Headquarters

Another cheering feature was the manner in which donations were taken to the Headquarters Office on King Street East. So many were received that it took a long time to count them in the office. A returning sea captain, W. J. Bassett, called to offer the use of his motor for Tag Day. Upon learning that money was not then coming in as quickly as had been anticipated, the visitor wrote out a cheque for $100. Then he turned to the visitors and said: "I am not able to give you the exact amount, but the amount is considerable." The great bulk of the money secured in the Campaign had been contributed by the people—the Salvation Army was of and for the people, and the captain tore up his cheque and wrote another for $200.

They did me in and for a good a good time, I slept on the Embankment. I used to go along the Strand very early in the morning, picking out the refuse from the dustbins. I remember getting tired of this and going to a four-penny Salvation Army house. I have participated as an individual in the noble institutions provided by the Salvation Army, was assisting in the square attempting to preach the Gospel to those Hindus. Someone started to pelt her. That was more than I could stand. I hit one man under the jaw, because I felt it was my duty, and I very lost sight of the number of my mess. Ever since that time there has been a close affinity between me and the Army.

the Army and ever since that I have clung to them. I do not know what we would do without the

Councillor Peter Wright

Army. Many a man who has been picked up by the Salvation Army is today a social asset and a useful citizen. I am glad what I know and what I have seen.

I remember going to France for the first time in 1915. I met a Tommy I knew at home. I asked him where we could get a cup of tea. "Let's go to the Army Hut," he said. "What?" I asked him. "Because you get a bigger cup and a bigger pot of tea than you get anywhere." I have been to France, and to see the way the Salvation Army has treated our men would warm your heart good. You go to any of the towns, and speak about the Army. There's love in the very ground those lasses walk on. I feel proud of the Army.

I will tell you a story. I do not go to Church. I am never free a Sunday at home. But whenever they have a "Come and See" General down town, Peter is asked to take the chair at the noon meeting, and they look upon us as one of their institutions. I am the Mayor prospective for next year, just before coming to Canada they called me in and asked me whether I was still a soldier. Jail when I was made the Mayor. All is well, I will be privileged to go to the Salvation Army and there will be God's blessing on the work during my mayoralty.

I feel proud of the citizens of Toronto for what the Army does. It shows their greatness. The Salvation Army has toiled on and to-day it stands as a great international organization in a situation which we cannot do without. I am going to give them my vote. They are fighting against great odds. This campaign will inspire them and help them to do their work more efficiently than ever.

Mr. W. F. MacLean, M.P.

much like the Salvation Army. It does not consist of ecclesiastical architecture, but of service in the public welfare—human welfare—and that is the great need of all the new movements that have come out of this war. There is a better world about us. We have lived to see the first of it and Toronto has assumed a leadership in this new type of public service that has made it an object of world-wide interest.

I especially congratulate the women of the Salvation Army upon the work they have done.

M. E. R. WOOD

The response to the appeal means not only the enlargement of the work of the Salvation Army but also a very much more active interest, and a very much more concern on the part of the people of Toronto in the work of the Salvation Army in this city. It is one thing to get $2,000 and another thing to spend it, but we are all satisfied the Salvation Army will give a good account of their stewardship.

MR. JAMES E. DAY
Past Grand Knight, K.C.C.

I am glad of the opportunity of speaking in my section because this is the second section in the City of Toronto when a good many representing any section, but when all sections are gathered together to represent all sections of the City. We are here to make good a promise that when the Catholic Army Hot Campaign started in Toronto, and when the men of the Hot Campaign right in to show there was a real community spirit in Toronto. The lines are down, never to be built up again.

MR. R. T. STANLEY
Everything of this kind does more good to the men who take it in than to the cause for which they do work. The Salvation Army needs nothing at our hands; we owe it to them. I am mighty proud of the Kiwanis Club. The war was over and men were tired, but we got

Mr. E. R. Wood

A representative of the Toronto, who is the chairman of the Hot Campaign.

MR. W. F. MACLEAN, M.P.

I agree with Mr. Hanna, that this money is deserved by them who have got it, and that it will be all administered well. The outstanding thing in connection with this fund is that it has come from the people. There have been a few large subscribers, but the number of smaller amounts that have come from the public—the men, the women, the children of all. That the industrial workers have given at the rate of 5c. per head ought to make every citizen proud. The "pep" is in the people now. In helping to raise this fund the returning men have done well and we hope that they were not only courageous in the front, but are prepared to do their duty when they come back.

Just one other thing. We are living in a new world and a new day. There is to be a new Church of the new day, and when I try to picture what it will be, it is very

CONTROLLER ROBBINS

As Chairman of the Industrial Committee, I feel proud of the work we have done. The outstanding thing was done by Mr. Dunham and his secretary, Mr. Bowman, while the Kiwanis Club did the outside work, and they have again demonstrated they are an organization for service. Too much cannot be said of their good work.

I am proud also of our industrial workers. What they have done shows they are a good and loyal people ready to help. The dollars and half dollars they gave represents perhaps a larger proportionate amount than the bigger sums given by other people.

The Campaign in Canada of Toronto gave over $1,000,000, and there have been raised by collections just about another $1,000,000. Toronto has thus given well over $2,000,000 for war philanthropies during the four years.

CONTROLLER McBRIDE

The campaign we are called here for to-night is worthy of your cooperation and the best we can give it. The Campaign to carry on the good work of the Salvation Army should meet with heartiest support of all.

COLONEL NOEL MARSHALL

Canadian Red Cross Society

I am delighted to hear testimony to the good work of the Salvation Army. For years before I knew something of the work in Toronto, I used my privilege to go overseas in 1914, and on many occasions I saw the work of the Salvation Army there. Shortly after the war started, we found we were getting assistance from the Salvation Army. I am glad to hear now that our relationships have been harmonious, and that they have been ready to help us when opportunity arose. I am delighted as the representative of the Red Cross to be here to congratulate your

REV. A. LOGAN GEGGIE

Parkdale Presbyterian Church

After speaking of two days' visits when visiting Huts at various places where the Canadian soldiers were in England and France, Mr. Geggie gave particulars of an instance where Adjutant Carroll and his comrade working with him were called upon to meet a sudden emergency in accommodating men and accomplished it "with flying colors."

"One thing struck me about the Salvation Army Huts," continued the speaker, "it was that atmosphere, as the men continually said, that always a smile on the face, where the people are, is done by the Salvation Army girls."

"One night I walked into a Salvation Army Hut at Etaples and spent about three-quarters of an hour watching. I got a plateful of peaches and camouflaged grease. I saw Australian, English, American, Scots and Canadian—gathered from all over the Camp—get fried potatoes—and the smile from these women. It is the home-like comfort of these Huts that appeals.

"We know what the Salvation Army does, and this is to be followed with a certain amount of uncertainty as to how reconstruction is to be arrived at. I want to say that the Organization that has done so well with the money we have given them in the days gone by can be trusted in their new work.

To our esteemed

peers, the Salvation Army, we want to say, "Long may you continue to progress in the way you have in the City of Toronto and throughout the world."

MR. R. T. STANLEY

Everything of this kind does more good to the men who take it in than to the cause for which they do work. The Salvation Army needs nothing at our hands; we owe it to them. I am mighty proud of the Kiwanis Club. The war was over and men were tired, but we got

committee. To-night is not a night for oratory—no night when money tales, and money has spoken and spoken loudly! One would have hardly believed it possible to have put on a Campaign at this time and realize the amount of work that has been realized.

To our esteemed

peers, the Salvation Army, we want to say, "Long may you continue to progress in the way you have in the committee. To-night is not a night for oratory—no night when money tales, and money has spoken and spoken loudly! One would have hardly believed it possible to have put on a Campaign at this time and realize the amount of work that has been realized.

City of Toronto and throughout the world."

(Continued on Page 13)

Colonel Noel Marshall

To our esteemed

peers, the Salvation Army, we want to say, "Long may you continue to progress in the way you have in the

City of Toronto and throughout the world."

MR. JAMES E. DAY

Past Grand Knight, K.C.C.

I am glad of the opportunity of speaking in my section because this is the second section in the City of Toronto when a good many representing any section, but when all sections are gathered together to represent all sections of the City. We are here to make good a promise that when the Catholic Army Hot Campaign started in Toronto, and when the men of the Hot Campaign right in to show there was a real community spirit in Toronto. The lines are down, never to be built up again.

MR. R. T. STANLEY

Everything of this kind does more good to the men who take it in than to the cause for which they do work. The Salvation Army needs nothing at our hands; we owe it to them. I am mighty proud of the Kiwanis Club. The war was over and men were tired, but we got

committee. To-night is not a night for oratory—no night when money tales, and money has spoken and spoken loudly! One would have hardly believed it possible to have put on a Campaign at this time and realize the amount of work that has been realized.

To our esteemed

peers, the Salvation Army, we want to say, "Long may you continue to progress in the way you have in the

City of Toronto and throughout the world."

MR. R. T. STANLEY

Everything of this kind does more good to the men who take it in than to the cause for which they do work. The Salvation Army needs nothing at our hands; we owe it to them. I am mighty proud of the Kiwanis Club. The war was over and men were tired, but we got

committee. To-night is not a night for oratory—no night when money tales, and money has spoken and spoken loudly! One would have hardly believed it possible to have put on a Campaign at this time and realize the amount of work that has been realized.

To our esteemed

peers, the Salvation Army, we want to say, "Long may you continue to progress in the way you have in the

City of Toronto and throughout the world."

MR. R. T. STANLEY

Everything of this kind does more good to the men who take it in than to the cause for which they do work. The Salvation Army needs nothing at our hands; we owe it to them. I am mighty proud of the Kiwanis Club. The war was over and men were tired, but we got

committee. To-night is not a night for oratory—no night when money tales, and money has spoken and spoken loudly! One would have hardly believed it possible to have put on a Campaign at this time and realize the amount of work that has been realized.

To our esteemed

peers, the Salvation Army, we want to say, "Long may you continue to progress in the way you have in the

City of Toronto and throughout the world."

MR. R. T. STANLEY

Everything of this kind does more good to the men who take it in than to the cause for which they do work. The Salvation Army needs nothing at our hands; we owe it to them. I am mighty proud of the Kiwanis Club. The war was over and men were tired, but we got

committee. To-night is not a night for oratory—no night when money tales, and money has spoken and spoken loudly! One would have hardly believed it possible to have put on a Campaign at this time and realize the amount of work that has been realized.

To our esteemed

peers, the Salvation Army, we want to say, "Long may you continue to progress in the way you have in the

City of Toronto and throughout the world."

MR. R. T. STANLEY

Everything of this kind does more good to the men who take it in than to the cause for which they do work. The Salvation Army needs nothing at our hands; we owe it to them. I am mighty proud of the Kiwanis Club. The war was over and men were tired, but we got

committee. To-night is not a night for oratory—no night when money tales, and money has spoken and spoken loudly! One would have hardly believed it possible to have put on a Campaign at this time and realize the amount of work that has been realized.

To our esteemed

peers, the Salvation Army, we want to say, "Long may you continue to progress in the way you have in the

City of Toronto and throughout the world."

MR. R. T. STANLEY

Everything of this kind does more good to the men who take it in than to the cause for which they do work. The Salvation Army needs nothing at our hands; we owe it to them. I am mighty proud of the Kiwanis Club. The war was over and men were tired, but we got

committee. To-night is not a night for oratory—no night when money tales, and money has spoken and spoken loudly! One would have hardly believed it possible to have put on a Campaign at this time and realize the amount of work that has been realized.

To our esteemed

peers, the Salvation Army, we want to say, "Long may you continue to progress in the way you have in the

City of Toronto and throughout the world."

MR. R. T. STANLEY

Everything of this kind does more good to the men who take it in than to the cause for which they do work. The Salvation Army needs nothing at our hands; we owe it to them. I am mighty proud of the Kiwanis Club. The war was over and men were tired, but we got

committee. To-night is not a night for oratory—no night when money tales, and money has spoken and spoken loudly! One would have hardly believed it possible to have put on a Campaign at this time and realize the amount of work that has been realized.

To our esteemed

peers, the Salvation Army, we want to say, "Long may you continue to progress in the way you have in the

City of Toronto and throughout the world."

MR. R. T. STANLEY

Everything of this kind does more good to the men who take it in than to the cause for which they do work. The Salvation Army needs nothing at our hands; we owe it to them. I am mighty proud of the Kiwanis Club. The war was over and men were tired, but we got

committee. To-night is not a night for oratory—no night when money tales, and money has spoken and spoken loudly! One would have hardly believed it possible to have put on a Campaign at this time and realize the amount of work that has been realized.

To our esteemed

peers, the Salvation Army, we want to say, "Long may you continue to progress in the way you have in the

City of Toronto and throughout the world."

MR. R. T. STANLEY

Everything of this kind does more good to the men who take it in than to the cause for which they do work. The Salvation Army needs nothing at our hands; we owe it to them. I am mighty proud of the Kiwanis Club. The war was over and men were tired, but we got

committee. To-night is not a night for oratory—no night when money tales, and money has spoken and spoken loudly! One would have hardly believed it possible to have put on a Campaign at this time and realize the amount of work that has been realized.

To our esteemed

peers, the Salvation Army, we want to say, "Long may you continue to progress in the way you have in the

City of Toronto and throughout the world."

MR. R. T. STANLEY

Everything of this kind does more good to the men who take it in than to the cause for which they do work. The Salvation Army needs nothing at our hands; we owe it to them. I am mighty proud of the Kiwanis Club. The war was over and men were tired, but we got

committee. To-night is not a night for oratory—no night when money tales, and money has spoken and spoken loudly! One would have hardly believed it possible to have put on a Campaign at this time and realize the amount of work that has been realized.

To our esteemed

peers, the Salvation Army, we want to say, "Long may you continue to progress in the way you have in the

City of Toronto and throughout the world."

MR. R. T. STANLEY

Everything of this kind does more good to the men who take it in than to the cause for which they do work. The Salvation Army needs nothing at our hands; we owe it to them. I am mighty proud of the Kiwanis Club. The war was over and men were tired, but we got

committee. To-night is not a night for oratory—no night when money tales, and money has spoken and spoken loudly! One would have hardly believed it possible to have put on a Campaign at this time and realize the amount of work that has been realized.

To our esteemed

peers, the Salvation Army, we want to say, "Long may you continue to progress in the way you have in the

City of Toronto and throughout the world."

MR. R. T. STANLEY

Everything of this kind does more good to the men who take it in than to the cause for which they do work. The Salvation Army needs nothing at our hands; we owe it to them. I am mighty proud of the Kiwanis Club. The war was over and men were tired, but we got

committee. To-night is not a night for oratory—no night when money tales, and money has spoken and spoken loudly! One would have hardly believed it possible to have put on a Campaign at this time and realize the amount of work that has been realized.

To our esteemed

peers, the Salvation Army, we want to say, "Long may you continue to progress in the way you have in the

City of Toronto and throughout the world."

MR. R. T. STANLEY

Everything of this kind does more good to the men who take it in than to the cause for which they do work. The Salvation Army needs nothing at our hands; we owe it to them. I am mighty proud of the Kiwanis Club. The war was over and men were tired, but we got

committee. To-night is not a night for oratory—no night when money tales, and money has spoken and spoken loudly! One would have hardly believed it possible to have put on a Campaign at this time and realize the amount of work that has been realized.

To our esteemed

peers, the Salvation Army, we want to say, "Long may you continue to progress in the way you have in the

City of Toronto and throughout the world."

MR. R. T. STANLEY

Everything of this kind does more good to the men who take it in than to the cause for which they do work. The Salvation Army needs nothing at our hands; we owe it to them. I am mighty proud of the Kiwanis Club. The war was over and men were tired, but we got

committee. To-night is not a night for oratory—no night when money tales, and money has spoken and spoken loudly! One would have hardly believed it possible to have put on a Campaign at this time and realize the amount of work that has been realized.

To our esteemed

peers, the Salvation Army, we want to say, "Long may you continue to progress in the way you have in the

City of Toronto and throughout the world."

MR. R. T. STANLEY

Everything of this kind does more good to the men who take it in than to the cause for which they do work. The Salvation Army needs nothing at our hands; we owe it to them. I am mighty proud of the Kiwanis Club. The war was over and men were tired, but we got

committee. To-night is not a night for oratory—no night when money tales, and money has spoken and spoken loudly! One would have hardly believed it possible to have put on a Campaign at this time and realize the amount of work that has been realized.

To our esteemed

peers, the Salvation Army, we want to say, "Long may you continue to progress in the way you have in the

City of Toronto and throughout the world."

MR. R. T. STANLEY

Everything of this kind does more good to the men who take it in than to the cause for which they do work. The Salvation Army needs nothing at our hands; we owe it to them. I am mighty proud of the Kiwanis Club. The war was over and men were tired, but we got

committee. To-night is not a night for oratory—no night when money tales, and money has spoken and spoken loudly! One would have hardly believed it possible to have put on a Campaign at this time and realize the amount of work that has been realized.

To our esteemed

peers, the Salvation Army, we want to say, "Long may you continue to progress in the way you have in the

City of Toronto and throughout the world."

MR. R. T. STANLEY

Everything of this kind does more good to the men who take it in than to the cause for which they do work. The Salvation Army needs nothing at our hands; we owe it to them. I am mighty proud of the Kiwanis Club. The war was over and men were tired, but we got

committee. To-night is not a night for oratory—no night when money tales, and money has spoken and spoken loudly! One would have hardly believed it possible to have put on a Campaign at this time and realize the amount of work that has been realized.

To our esteemed

peers, the Salvation Army, we want to say, "Long may you continue to progress in the way you have in the

City of Toronto and throughout the world."

MR. R. T. STANLEY

Everything of this kind does more good to the men who take it in than to the cause for which they do work. The Salvation Army needs nothing at our hands; we owe it to them. I am mighty proud of the Kiwanis Club. The war was over and men were tired, but we got

committee. To-night is not a night for oratory—no night when money tales, and money has spoken and spoken loudly! One would have hardly believed it possible to have put on a Campaign at this time and realize the amount of work that has been realized.

To our esteemed

peers, the Salvation Army, we want to say, "Long may you continue to progress in the way you have in the

City of Toronto and throughout the world."

MR. R. T. STANLEY

Everything of this kind does more good to the men who take it in than to the cause for which they do work. The Salvation Army needs nothing at our hands; we owe it to them. I am mighty proud of the Kiwanis Club. The war was over and men were tired, but we got

committee. To-night is not a night for oratory—no night when money tales, and money has spoken and spoken loudly! One would have hardly believed it possible to have put on a Campaign at this time and realize the amount of work that has been realized.

To our esteemed

peers, the Salvation Army, we want to say, "Long may you continue to progress in the way you have in the

City of Toronto and throughout the world."

MR. R. T. STANLEY

Everything of this kind does more good to the men who take it in than to the cause for which they do work. The Salvation Army needs nothing at our hands; we owe it to them. I am mighty proud of the Kiwanis Club. The war was over and men were tired, but we got

committee. To-night is not a night for oratory—no night when money tales, and money has spoken and spoken loudly! One would have hardly believed it possible to have put on a Campaign at this time and realize the amount of work that has been realized.

To our esteemed

peers, the Salvation Army, we want to say, "Long may you continue to progress in the way you have in the

City of Toronto and throughout the world."

MR. R. T. STANLEY

Everything of this kind does more good to the men who take it in than to the cause for which they do work. The Salvation Army needs nothing at our hands; we owe it to them. I am mighty proud of the Kiwanis Club. The war was over and men were tired, but we got

committee. To-night is not a night for oratory—no night when money tales, and money has spoken and spoken loudly! One would have hardly believed it possible to have put on a Campaign at this time and realize the amount of work that has been realized.

To our esteemed

peers, the Salvation Army, we want to say, "Long may you continue to progress in the way you have in the

City of Toronto and throughout the world."

MR. R. T. STANLEY

Everything of this kind does more good to the men who take it in than to the cause for which they do work. The Salvation Army needs nothing at our hands; we owe it to them. I am mighty proud of the Kiwanis Club. The war was over and men were tired, but we got

committee. To-night is not a night for oratory—no night when money tales, and money has spoken and spoken loudly! One would have hardly believed it possible to have put on a Campaign at this time and realize the amount of work that has been realized.

To our esteemed

peers, the Salvation Army, we want to say, "Long may you continue to progress in the way you have in the

City of Toronto and throughout the world."

MR. R. T. STANLEY

Everything of this kind does more good to the men who take it in than to the cause for which they do work. The Salvation Army needs nothing at our hands; we owe it to them. I am mighty proud of the Kiwanis Club. The war was over and men were tired, but we got

committee. To-night is not a night for oratory—no night when money tales, and money has spoken and spoken loudly! One would have hardly believed it possible to have put on a Campaign at this time and realize the amount of work that has been realized.

To our esteemed

peers, the Salvation Army, we want to say, "Long may you continue to progress in the way you have in the

City of Toronto and throughout the world."

MR. R. T. STANLEY

Everything of this kind does more good to the men who take it in than to the cause for which they do work. The Salvation Army needs nothing at our hands; we owe it to them. I am mighty proud of the Kiwanis Club. The war was over and men were tired, but we got

committee. To-night is not a night for oratory—no night when money tales, and money has spoken and spoken loudly! One would have hardly believed it possible to have put on a Campaign at this time and realize the amount of work that has been realized.

To our esteemed

peers, the Salvation Army, we want to say, "Long may you continue to progress in the way you have in the

City of Toronto and

LATEST NEWS of SALVATION FIGHTING ON THE FIELD.

SINNERS SEEK PARDON
At Meetings Conducted at Clark's Beach by Visiting Officers

EXCELLENT PROGRESS

Being Made at Medicine Hat, Alta.

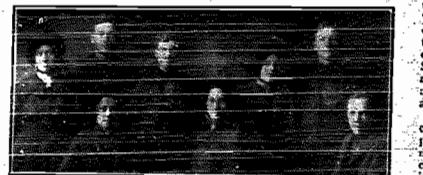

GOOD TIMES

Are Experienced at Wetaskiwin

HOME, SWEET HOME

Touched Tender Chords at New Wood Welcome Return Soldier

God is blessing us in our work in this city. On Saturday night, Jan. 18th, the band came out in good numbers and the playing was scenically enjoyed by the crowd who gathered around to listen to the good old Army songs. We had a band time at Kne Drill and in the Hall.

Captains Pasmore and Mercer and the Corps Cadets of MacLeod, Alta.

Home Meeting - Our came very neat. Our Captain MacLeod was well attended in the afternoon, eighty being present. In our Salvation Meeting at night over one hundred people gathered. Various testimonies were given by those who had been saved by the power of God to enable them to live virtuous lives over sin. At the close of the meeting we rejoiced to see two sons claiming pardon. Our outdoor and indoor attendances are very encouraging.

During the week-end Cadets and 2nd class boys attended for Strathroy, where they have been appointed. Our prayers follow them that God will make them soldiers. During their short stay here they have worked hard and gained the respect of every Comrade.

The Young People are taking quite an interest in things just now. They conduct the meeting every Thursday and we have some real good times.

During the week-end Cadets and 2nd class boys attended for Strathroy, where they have been appointed. Our prayers follow them that God will make them soldiers. During their short stay here they have worked hard and gained the respect of every Comrade.

PRISON MEETINGS
Result in Many Men Being Blessed at Halifax

On Sunday, Jan. 2nd, the meetings were led by Commandant and Mrs. Mervin. At eight three souls knelt at the Mercy Seat.

On Thursday night, Jan. 16th, the Life-Saving Scouts, assisted by a few Guards and Seniors, put on an excellent programme entitled "We're for Jesus". Principal Blakstone was chairman and congratulated Scout Leader Wilder and Instructor Mrs. Thompson on their excellent service.

Revival meetings have been held in prisons, the old-fashioned Gospel demonstrating its usual power to bring about a wonderful change, both spiritual and physical. We have a splendid new Hall, which was opened on Saturday, Jan. 18th. The re-opening services were conducted by Brigadiers Miller and Barr.

The services on Sunday were conducted by Brigadier Barr. Many benefited by the blessings received, and soon dedicated themselves afresh to God.

LEAGUE OF MERCY

Has a Fine Record for Past Year in Ottawa

Good work has been done by the Ottawa 1st Battalion, M.R.C. during the past year as may be gathered from the following figures: Number of visits paid to Institutions, 77; number of meetings held, 102; number of persons visited, 7,541; number of persons prayed for, 1,071; number of persons baptized, 10; number of "War Cries" distributed, 6,660; number of persons helped, 67; number of persons written to, 26; private houses visited, 445. Sixty articles of clothing have been given to needy families, also fruit and other articles.

One of the workers passed away recently, Sister Mrs. Sanders. Her loss is very much felt, especially by the patients at the Perley House, where she went every week.

Mr. A. T. Enlow, Chairman of the Executive of the Hamilton Campaign Headquarters

Drive with Lieut.-Colonel and Mrs. Chandler and Mr. Dazzer at the Campaign Headquarters

On January 18-19 we had with us at Digby Adjutant Campbell. Good crowds turned out to all meetings. On Saturday night eight held up their hands for prayers. On Sunday we had the joy of seeing three sons making their way to the Mercy Seat. Captain MacTavish is leading us on.

F. T.

GOOD TIMES AT DIGBY

Three Backsliders Return to the Fold

On January 18-19 we had with us at Digby Adjutant Campbell. Good crowds turned out to all meetings. On Saturday night eight held up their hands for prayers. On Sunday we had the joy of seeing three sons making their way to the Mercy Seat. Captain MacTavish is leading us on.

F. T.

Feb. 8, 1919

THE WAR CRY

HOME LEAGUE NOTES

Called Home to Heaven

Mrs. Colonel Gaskin Passes Away in England—Funeral Service Was Conducted by Commissioner Mapp—Splendid Tributes Paid to Her Life of Unsullied Service

PARTICULARS AS TO HER LAST DAYS ON EARTH

The following particulars concerning the death and funeral of Mrs. Colonel Gaskin are from the "Hinckley Times" and "Bosworth Herald", a copy of which has reached us. She passed away at Hinckley, her home town, on Saturday, Dec. 14th.

The late Mrs. Gaskin, says the paper referred to, "though not generally known, was a much well-known Army hymn. Letters of sympathy it was stated, had been received by Colonel Gaskin from General Branson, Gen. M. B. Macmillan, Commissioner Howard, Commissioner Lamb, Commissioner Riches, Mr. Horatio, Territorial Headquarters Staff; Lieut.-Colonel Cameron, three Officers in Canada, representing heads of their colonies, Commissioner Oliphant, Mrs. Gaskin in Switzerland; Colonel Chander (Hamilton, Canada), Commissioners Cox and Duff and others.

"Beautiful, Brave and Sweet"

"A fine tribute to the work of beautiful, brave and sweet Mrs. Gaskin in Switzerland, was paid by Adjutant Meakin, who said their departed sister was one of the noblest, God's creatures, whose life in Switzerland would remain a beautiful memorial."

"On Tuesday night her couch returned, but she got up Wednesday morning. During the day there was a return of bronchitis. The doctor gave suitable medicine, but got no relief. At about 8 o'clock on Friday night she was so heavy that she had to be assisted upstairs and on reaching her room was utterly exhausted, her heart giving her such trouble."

"At nine midnight on Thursday, her breathing seemed easier, and on Friday night she was to all appearance on the way to recovery. Saturday morning she said she felt better but 'Oh, so tired.' She became suddenly ill, sent for a doctor, but died before he arrived. She had quietly passed away, being quite unconscious the last few minutes."

"Her death was occasioned by heart trouble caused by the bronchitis. Her last words were 'Is your heart well?' 'Have you faith?' 'She was a good, true, Holy woman; a devoted, loving, faithful wife; a brave and loyal Salvationist. She is now in heaven, of that I am absolutely confident. Her life was very sad, and the grief of the family is very acute.'

All That Was Best

"Mrs. Gaskin was a woman who stood for all that was best and highest and noblest in womanhood, and never sacrificed that which was involved in true womanhood for any consideration, even though it might mean great grief, dying, circumstances and severe temptations and trials. She stood out not as one of those women with a strong, robust, healthy frame and constitution, which accompanied her work by great dash of gills, shone with great glamour, but as a wife who imparted to her husband strength, courage, determination, unflinching, unhesitating, and unwavering determination, in the paths of righteousness, and held him to his great and loyal, to the great purpose and cause for which she had dedicated their lives. As a Christian and a Salvationist she was in loyalty, duty and fidelity the acme of those qualities which were to be seen in the life of Jesus Christ. In her ministrations, and in many other directions, the influence of her life was that of a Christian and a Salvationist. When they realized the loss of such a one, they stood in the presence of a fact that 'God moves in a mysterious way, his wonders to perform.'

A Holy Woman

Colonel Gaskin, speaking with considerable emotion, referred to his wife as a "holy woman, in the profoundest sense of the term, who did not know how to think evil things, much less have evil thoughts or do evil deeds. He glorified God to the highest, in his simple life. The lesson we learn is that Commissioner Mapp, and prayer was offered by the Rev. P. A. Hudgell.

"The procession to the cemetery was made up of hundreds of Army Officers, Bandsmen and Singers, the latter wearing white sashes, the Army symbol of bereavement, and was headed by banners and an augmented band with draped drums, which played suitable music on route. At the graveside there was a large gathering of friends and Salvationists. The body was committed to earth by Commissioner Mapp, who briefly referred to the passing of Mrs. Gaskin, and prayers were said by Brigadier W. K. Gaskin.

Colonel Gaskin, in a letter to Lieutenant-Colonel Sweeton, says "Mrs. Gaskin had an attack of bronchial asthma in May. Less than a week before her death, however, she was better than she had been. She was not walking the Monday before her death.

"On Tuesday night her couch returned, but she got up Wednesday morning. During the day there was a return of bronchitis. The doctor gave suitable medicine, but got no relief. At about 8 o'clock on Friday night she was so heavy that she had to be assisted upstairs and on reaching her room was utterly exhausted, her heart giving her such trouble."

"At nine midnight on Thursday, her breathing seemed easier, and on Friday night she was to all appearance on the way to recovery. Saturday morning she said she felt better but 'Oh, so tired.'

"She became suddenly ill, sent for a doctor, but died before he arrived. She had quietly passed away, being quite unconscious the last few minutes."

"Her death was occasioned by heart trouble caused by the bronchitis. Her last words were 'Is your heart well?' 'Have you faith?' 'She was a good, true, Holy woman; a devoted, loving, faithful wife; a brave and loyal Salvationist. She is now in heaven, of that I am absolutely confident. Her life was very sad, and the grief of the family is very acute.'

"All That Was Best

"Mrs. Gaskin was a woman who stood for all that was best and highest and noblest in womanhood, and never sacrificed that which was involved in true womanhood for any consideration, even though it might mean great grief, dying, circumstances and severe temptations and trials. She stood out not as one of those women with a strong, robust, healthy frame and constitution, which accompanied her work by great dash of gills, shone with great glamour, but as a wife who imparted to her husband strength, courage, determination, unflinching, unhesitating, and unwavering determination, in the paths of righteousness, and held him to his great and loyal, to the great purpose and cause for which she had dedicated their lives. As a Christian and a Salvationist she was in loyalty, duty and fidelity the acme of those qualities which were to be seen in the life of Jesus Christ. In her ministrations, and in many other directions, the influence of her life was that of a Christian and a Salvationist. When they realized the loss of such a one, they stood in the presence of a fact that 'God moves in a mysterious way, his wonders to perform.'

A Holy Woman

Colonel Gaskin, speaking with considerable emotion, referred to his wife as a "holy woman, in the profoundest sense of the term, who did not know how to think evil things, much less have evil thoughts or do evil deeds. He glorified God to the highest, in his simple life. The lesson we learn is that Commissioner Mapp, and prayer was offered by the Rev. P. A. Hudgell.

"The procession to the cemetery was made up of hundreds of Army Officers, Bandsmen and Singers, the latter wearing white sashes, the Army symbol of bereavement, and was headed by banners and an augmented band with draped drums, which played suitable music on route. At the graveside there was a large gathering of friends and Salvationists. The body was committed to earth by Commissioner Mapp, who briefly referred to the passing of Mrs. Gaskin, and prayers were said by Brigadier W. K. Gaskin.

Colonel Gaskin, in a letter to Lieutenant-Colonel Sweeton, says "Mrs. Gaskin had an attack of bronchial asthma in May. Less than a week before her death, however, she was better than she had been. She was not walking the Monday before her death.

"On Tuesday night her couch returned, but she got up Wednesday morning. During the day there was a return of bronchitis. The doctor gave suitable medicine, but got no relief. At about 8 o'clock on Friday night she was so heavy that she had to be assisted upstairs and on reaching her room was utterly exhausted, her heart giving her such trouble."

"At nine midnight on Thursday, her breathing seemed easier, and on Friday night she was to all appearance on the way to recovery. Saturday morning she said she felt better but 'Oh, so tired.'

"She became suddenly ill, sent for a doctor, but died before he arrived. She had quietly passed away, being quite unconscious the last few minutes."

"Her death was occasioned by heart trouble caused by the bronchitis. Her last words were 'Is your heart well?' 'Have you faith?' 'She was a good, true, Holy woman; a devoted, loving, faithful wife; a brave and loyal Salvationist. She is now in heaven, of that I am absolutely confident. Her life was very sad, and the grief of the family is very acute.'

"All That Was Best

"Mrs. Gaskin was a woman who stood for all that was best and highest and noblest in womanhood, and never sacrificed that which was involved in true womanhood for any consideration, even though it might mean great grief, dying, circumstances and severe temptations and trials. She stood out not as one of those women with a strong, robust, healthy frame and constitution, which accompanied her work by great dash of gills, shone with great glamour, but as a wife who imparted to her husband strength, courage, determination, unflinching, unhesitating, and unwavering determination, in the paths of righteousness, and held him to his great and loyal, to the great purpose and cause for which she had dedicated their lives. As a Christian and a Salvationist she was in loyalty, duty and fidelity the acme of those qualities which were to be seen in the life of Jesus Christ. In her ministrations, and in many other directions, the influence of her life was that of a Christian and a Salvationist. When they realized the loss of such a one, they stood in the presence of a fact that 'God moves in a mysterious way, his wonders to perform.'

A Holy Woman

Colonel Gaskin, speaking with considerable emotion, referred to his wife as a "holy woman, in the profoundest sense of the term, who did not know how to think evil things, much less have evil thoughts or do evil deeds. He glorified God to the highest, in his simple life. The lesson we learn is that Commissioner Mapp, and prayer was offered by the Rev. P. A. Hudgell.

"The procession to the cemetery was made up of hundreds of Army Officers, Bandsmen and Singers,

the latter wearing white sashes, the Army symbol of bereavement, and was headed by banners and an augmented band with draped drums, which played suitable music on route. At the graveside there was a large gathering of friends and Salvationists. The body was committed to earth by Commissioner Mapp, who briefly referred to the passing of Mrs. Gaskin, and prayers were said by Brigadier W. K. Gaskin.

Colonel Gaskin, in a letter to Lieutenant-Colonel Sweeton, says "Mrs. Gaskin had an attack of bronchial asthma in May. Less than a week before her death, however, she was better than she had been. She was not walking the Monday before her death.

"On Tuesday night her couch returned, but she got up Wednesday morning. During the day there was a return of bronchitis. The doctor gave suitable medicine, but got no relief. At about 8 o'clock on Friday night she was so heavy that she had to be assisted upstairs and on reaching her room was utterly exhausted, her heart giving her such trouble."

"At nine midnight on Thursday, her breathing seemed easier, and on Friday night she was to all appearance on the way to recovery. Saturday morning she said she felt better but 'Oh, so tired.'

"She became suddenly ill, sent for a doctor, but died before he arrived. She had quietly passed away, being quite unconscious the last few minutes."

"Her death was occasioned by heart trouble caused by the bronchitis. Her last words were 'Is your heart well?' 'Have you faith?' 'She was a good, true, Holy woman; a devoted, loving, faithful wife; a brave and loyal Salvationist. She is now in heaven, of that I am absolutely confident. Her life was very sad, and the grief of the family is very acute.'

"All That Was Best

"Mrs. Gaskin was a woman who stood for all that was best and highest and noblest in womanhood, and never sacrificed that which was involved in true womanhood for any consideration, even though it might mean great grief, dying, circumstances and severe temptations and trials. She stood out not as one of those women with a strong, robust, healthy frame and constitution, which accompanied her work by great dash of gills, shone with great glamour, but as a wife who imparted to her husband strength, courage, determination, unflinching, unhesitating, and unwavering determination, in the paths of righteousness, and held him to his great and loyal, to the great purpose and cause for which she had dedicated their lives. As a Christian and a Salvationist she was in loyalty, duty and fidelity the acme of those qualities which were to be seen in the life of Jesus Christ. In her ministrations, and in many other directions, the influence of her life was that of a Christian and a Salvationist. When they realized the loss of such a one, they stood in the presence of a fact that 'God moves in a mysterious way, his wonders to perform.'

A Holy Woman

Colonel Gaskin, speaking with considerable emotion, referred to his wife as a "holy woman, in the profoundest sense of the term, who did not know how to think evil things, much less have evil thoughts or do evil deeds. He glorified God to the highest, in his simple life. The lesson we learn is that Commissioner Mapp, and prayer was offered by the Rev. P. A. Hudgell.

"The procession to the cemetery was made up of hundreds of Army Officers, Bandsmen and Singers,

the latter wearing white sashes, the Army symbol of bereavement, and was headed by banners and an augmented band with draped drums, which played suitable music on route. At the graveside there was a large gathering of friends and Salvationists. The body was committed to earth by Commissioner Mapp, who briefly referred to the passing of Mrs. Gaskin, and prayers were said by Brigadier W. K. Gaskin.

Colonel Gaskin, in a letter to Lieutenant-Colonel Sweeton, says "Mrs. Gaskin had an attack of bronchial asthma in May. Less than a week before her death, however, she was better than she had been. She was not walking the Monday before her death.

"On Tuesday night her couch returned, but she got up Wednesday morning. During the day there was a return of bronchitis. The doctor gave suitable medicine, but got no relief. At about 8 o'clock on Friday night she was so heavy that she had to be assisted upstairs and on reaching her room was utterly exhausted, her heart giving her such trouble."

"At nine midnight on Thursday, her breathing seemed easier, and on Friday night she was to all appearance on the way to recovery. Saturday morning she said she felt better but 'Oh, so tired.'

"She became suddenly ill, sent for a doctor, but died before he arrived. She had quietly passed away, being quite unconscious the last few minutes."

"Her death was occasioned by heart trouble caused by the bronchitis. Her last words were 'Is your heart well?' 'Have you faith?' 'She was a good, true, Holy woman; a devoted, loving, faithful wife; a brave and loyal Salvationist. She is now in heaven, of that I am absolutely confident. Her life was very sad, and the grief of the family is very acute.'

"All That Was Best

"Mrs. Gaskin was a woman who stood for all that was best and highest and noblest in womanhood, and never sacrificed that which was involved in true womanhood for any consideration, even though it might mean great grief, dying, circumstances and severe temptations and trials. She stood out not as one of those women with a strong, robust, healthy frame and constitution, which accompanied her work by great dash of gills, shone with great glamour, but as a wife who imparted to her husband strength, courage, determination, unflinching, unhesitating, and unwavering determination, in the paths of righteousness, and held him to his great and loyal, to the great purpose and cause for which she had dedicated their lives. As a Christian and a Salvationist she was in loyalty, duty and fidelity the acme of those qualities which were to be seen in the life of Jesus Christ. In her ministrations, and in many other directions, the influence of her life was that of a Christian and a Salvationist. When they realized the loss of such a one, they stood in the presence of a fact that 'God moves in a mysterious way, his wonders to perform.'

A Holy Woman

Colonel Gaskin, speaking with considerable emotion, referred to his wife as a "holy woman, in the profoundest sense of the term, who did not know how to think evil things, much less have evil thoughts or do evil deeds. He glorified God to the highest, in his simple life. The lesson we learn is that Commissioner Mapp, and prayer was offered by the Rev. P. A. Hudgell.

"The procession to the cemetery was made up of hundreds of Army Officers, Bandsmen and Singers,

the latter wearing white sashes, the Army symbol of bereavement, and was headed by banners and an augmented band with draped drums, which played suitable music on route. At the graveside there was a large gathering of friends and Salvationists. The body was committed to earth by Commissioner Mapp, who briefly referred to the passing of Mrs. Gaskin, and prayers were said by Brigadier W. K. Gaskin.

Colonel Gaskin, in a letter to Lieutenant-Colonel Sweeton, says "Mrs. Gaskin had an attack of bronchial asthma in May. Less than a week before her death, however, she was better than she had been. She was not walking the Monday before her death.

"On Tuesday night her couch returned, but she got up Wednesday morning. During the day there was a return of bronchitis. The doctor gave suitable medicine, but got no relief. At about 8 o'clock on Friday night she was so heavy that she had to be assisted upstairs and on reaching her room was utterly exhausted, her heart giving her such trouble."

"At nine midnight on Thursday, her breathing seemed easier, and on Friday night she was to all appearance on the way to recovery. Saturday morning she said she felt better but 'Oh, so tired.'

"She became suddenly ill, sent for a doctor, but died before he arrived. She had quietly passed away, being quite unconscious the last few minutes."

"Her death was occasioned by heart trouble caused by the bronchitis. Her last words were 'Is your heart well?' 'Have you faith?' 'She was a good, true, Holy woman; a devoted, loving, faithful wife; a brave and loyal Salvationist. She is now in heaven, of that I am absolutely confident. Her life was very sad, and the grief of the family is very acute.'

"All That Was Best

"Mrs. Gaskin was a woman who stood for all that was best and highest and noblest in womanhood, and never sacrificed that which was involved in true womanhood for any consideration, even though it might mean great grief, dying, circumstances and severe temptations and trials. She stood out not as one of those women with a strong, robust, healthy frame and constitution, which accompanied her work by great dash of gills, shone with great glamour, but as a wife who imparted to her husband strength, courage, determination, unflinching, unhesitating, and unwavering determination, in the paths of righteousness, and held him to his great and loyal, to the great purpose and cause for which she had dedicated their lives. As a Christian and a Salvationist she was in loyalty, duty and fidelity the acme of those qualities which were to be seen in the life of Jesus Christ. In her ministrations, and in many other directions, the influence of her life was that of a Christian and a Salvationist. When they realized the loss of such a one, they stood in the presence of a fact that 'God moves in a mysterious way, his wonders to perform.'

A Holy Woman

Colonel Gaskin, speaking with considerable emotion, referred to his wife as a "holy woman, in the profoundest sense of the term, who did not know how to think evil things, much less have evil thoughts or do evil deeds. He glorified God to the highest, in his simple life. The lesson we learn is that Commissioner Mapp, and prayer was offered by the Rev. P. A. Hudgell.

"The procession to the cemetery was made up of hundreds of Army Officers, Bandsmen and Singers,

the latter wearing white sashes, the Army symbol of bereavement, and was headed by banners and an augmented band with draped drums, which played suitable music on route. At the graveside there was a large gathering of friends and Salvationists. The body was committed to earth by Commissioner Mapp, who briefly referred to the passing of Mrs. Gaskin, and prayers were said by Brigadier W. K. Gaskin.

Colonel Gaskin, in a letter to Lieutenant-Colonel Sweeton, says "Mrs. Gaskin had an attack of bronchial asthma in May. Less than a week before her death, however, she was better than she had been. She was not walking the Monday before her death.

"On Tuesday night her couch returned, but she got up Wednesday morning. During the day there was a return of bronchitis. The doctor gave suitable medicine, but got no relief. At about 8 o'clock on Friday night she was so heavy that she had to be assisted upstairs and on reaching her room was utterly exhausted, her heart giving her such trouble."

"At nine midnight on Thursday, her breathing seemed easier, and on Friday night she was to all appearance on the way to recovery. Saturday morning she said she felt better but 'Oh, so tired.'

"She became suddenly ill, sent for a doctor, but died before he arrived. She had quietly passed away, being quite unconscious the last few minutes."

"Her death was occasioned by heart trouble caused by the bronchitis. Her last words were 'Is your heart well?' 'Have you faith?' 'She was a good, true, Holy woman; a devoted, loving, faithful wife; a brave and loyal Salvationist. She is now in heaven, of that I am absolutely confident. Her life was very sad, and the grief of the family is very acute.'

"All That Was Best

"Mrs. Gaskin was a woman who stood for all that was best and highest and noblest in womanhood, and never sacrificed that which was involved in true womanhood for any consideration, even though it might mean great grief, dying, circumstances and severe temptations and trials. She stood out not as one of those women with a strong, robust, healthy frame and constitution, which accompanied her work by great dash of gills, shone with great glamour, but as a wife who imparted to her husband strength, courage, determination, unflinching, unhesitating, and unwavering determination, in the paths of righteousness, and held him to his great and loyal, to the great purpose and cause for which she had dedicated their lives. As a Christian and a Salvationist she was in loyalty, duty and fidelity the acme of those qualities which were to be seen in the life of Jesus Christ. In her ministrations, and in many other directions, the influence of her life was that of a Christian and a Salvationist. When they realized the loss of such a one, they stood in the presence of a fact that 'God moves in a mysterious way, his wonders to perform.'

A Holy Woman

Colonel Gaskin, speaking with considerable emotion, referred to his wife as a "holy woman, in the profoundest sense of the term, who did not know how to think evil things, much less have evil thoughts or do evil deeds. He glorified God to the highest, in his simple life. The lesson we learn is that Commissioner Mapp, and prayer was offered by the Rev. P. A. Hudgell.

"The procession to the cemetery was made up of hundreds of Army Officers, Bandsmen and Singers,

the latter wearing white sashes, the Army symbol of bereavement, and was headed by banners and an augmented band with draped drums, which played suitable music on route. At the graveside there was a large gathering of friends and Salvationists. The body was committed to earth by Commissioner Mapp, who briefly referred to the passing of Mrs. Gaskin, and prayers were said by Brigadier W. K. Gaskin.

Colonel Gaskin, in a letter to Lieutenant-Colonel Sweeton, says "Mrs. Gaskin had an attack of bronchial asthma in May. Less than a week before her death, however, she was better than she had been. She was not walking the Monday before her death.

"On Tuesday night her couch returned, but she got up Wednesday morning. During the day there was a return of bronchitis. The doctor gave suitable medicine, but got no relief. At about 8 o'clock on Friday night she was so heavy that she had to be assisted upstairs and on reaching her room was utterly exhausted, her heart giving her such trouble."

"At nine midnight on Thursday, her breathing seemed easier, and on Friday night she was to all appearance on the way to recovery. Saturday morning she said she felt better but 'Oh, so tired.'

"She became suddenly ill, sent for a doctor, but died before he arrived. She had quietly passed away, being quite unconscious the last few minutes."

"Her death was occasioned by heart trouble caused by the bronchitis. Her last words were 'Is your heart well?' 'Have you faith?' 'She was a good, true, Holy woman; a devoted, loving, faithful wife; a brave and loyal Salvationist. She is now in heaven, of that I am absolutely confident. Her life was very sad, and the grief of the family is very acute.'

"All That Was Best

"Mrs. Gaskin was a woman who stood for all that was best and highest and noblest in womanhood, and never sacrificed that which was involved in true womanhood for any consideration, even though it might mean great grief, dying, circumstances and severe temptations and trials. She stood out not as one of those women with a strong, robust, healthy frame and constitution, which accompanied her work by great dash of gills, shone with great glamour, but as a wife who imparted to her husband strength, courage, determination, unflinching, unhesitating, and unwavering determination, in the paths of righteousness, and held him to his great and loyal, to the great purpose and cause for which she had dedicated their lives. As a Christian and a Salvationist she was in loyalty, duty and fidelity the acme of those qualities which were to be seen in the life of Jesus Christ. In her ministrations, and in many other directions, the influence of her life was that of a Christian and a Salvationist. When they realized the loss of such a one, they stood in the presence of a fact that 'God moves in a mysterious way, his wonders to perform.'

A Holy Woman

Colonel Gaskin, speaking with considerable emotion, referred to his wife as a "holy woman, in the profoundest sense of the term, who did not know how to think evil things, much less have evil thoughts or do evil deeds. He glorified God to the highest, in his simple life. The lesson we learn is that Commissioner Mapp, and prayer was offered by the Rev. P. A. Hudgell.

"The procession to the cemetery was made up of hundreds of Army Officers, Bandsmen and Singers,

the latter wearing white sashes, the Army symbol of bereavement, and was headed by banners and an augmented band with draped drums, which played suitable music on route. At the graveside there was a large gathering of friends and Salvationists. The body was committed to earth by Commissioner Mapp, who briefly referred to the passing of Mrs. Gaskin, and prayers were said by Brigadier W. K. Gaskin.

Colonel Gaskin, in a letter to Lieutenant-Colonel Sweeton, says "Mrs. Gaskin had an attack of bronchial asthma in May. Less than a week before her death, however, she was better than she had been. She was not walking the Monday before her death.

"On Tuesday night her couch returned, but she got up Wednesday morning. During the day there was a return of bronchitis. The doctor gave suitable medicine, but got no relief. At about 8 o'clock on Friday night she was so heavy that she had to be assisted upstairs and on reaching her room was utterly exhausted, her heart giving her such trouble."

"At nine midnight on Thursday, her breathing seemed easier, and on Friday night she was to all appearance on the way to recovery. Saturday morning she said she felt better but 'Oh, so tired.'

"She became suddenly ill, sent for a doctor, but died before he arrived. She had quietly passed away, being quite unconscious the last few minutes."

Bandman Fred Groves, Bonsvista.

For a number of years Brother Fred Groves was a faithful Soldier of this Corps, and could always be depended on to do his duty. He never felt happier than in a good meeting, or going to some place with his Comrades to sing hymns to others and to help on the work.

In his last Sunday night's meeting he sang "I'm nearer home to-day than ever I've been before"; afterwards singing of his determination to live for God and his cause for the Lord. During the following week he performed his daily work as usual, coming to the meeting the following Sunday evening. Again he sang "I need Thee, O, I need Thee"; also giving his testimony of his love for Jesus and of Christ. During his testimony he referred to the time, when in sin: if it was only a slight pain he felt, he would be afraid he was going to hell. But now he had no fear of death, but rather looked forward to death, would come. Little we thought it was going to be his last testimony or his last song in our Hall, but so it proved to be.

After leading the afternoon meeting he went to his room to rest a little. During the following week he contracted Spanish influenza, followed by pneumonia, and on Monday night about 8 p.m. the chariot lowered and Brother Groves had down the cross. We have a cross from the hand of the Lord.

Owing to the influenza outbreak we were prevented from having a public funeral service in the Hall, but on Tuesday we laid him away in quietness.

On Sunday night, Dec. 26th, we held a memorial service, which a very large number attended. The Band, under the direction of Bandmaster MacLean, played special selections for the occasion. The Band and the organist, Mr. Alfie Corlett, sang on behalf of the Band, and Sergeant-Major Brown on behalf of the Corps. Mrs. Adjutant Earle impressed all with the fact we are all born to die, and if we are to live for God, let us do it in Heaven, and live for God.

Brother Groves leaves behind him a dear wife and one little girl, but the cloud of sorrow is lifted from them somewhat with the knowledge that he is gone to be with Jesus.

—Adjutant Earle.

Sister Agnes Thompson, Woodstock, Ontario.

Death has claimed one of Woodstock's oldest Soldiers, in the person of Mrs. Agnes Thompson, who was in her sixty-sixth year. Mrs. Thompson (or "M.") as she was more familiarly known, had been a Soldier of the Corps, a pillar of over thirty years, and a tireless rook rodder of her was an ardent worker for the Lord. Late, however, she had suffered more or less considerably, and had spent much of her time in the local hospital.

While the world mourns the departure of being one of the most cheerful patients the hospital had, she was continually going from one bed to another, distributing cheer and comfort to others. When some of the comrades visited the hospital on Sunday evenings, Mrs. Thompson would always assist by praying, singing, or reading the Scriptures, her health permitted.

The following Sunday evening we held a Memorial Service. Sister Mrs. Dawson and another Alex Cross spoke of the good life our comrade had lived, of her self-sacrificing spirit and devotion to duty both as an Officer and Soldier. Sister L. Ryder soloed, and the Band

PROMOTED TO GLORY

ENSIGN M. CHATTERSON (Winnipeg)

After an illness of nearly three weeks, Ensign Maggie Chatterton (Kildonan Home Staff) passed away at five o'clock in the evening on Monday, Jan. 13th. The Ensign had contracted Spanish influenza, and died of complications which afterwards set in.

Ensign Chatterton

Commissioner Sowton conducted the funeral service in the undertaking parlors of Clark and Hingst on Wednesday afternoon, January 15th. The service was well attended. The Commissioner opened the proceedings with an appropriate song, after

Sister Mrs. Speake, New Waterford

On Monday, Dec. 6th, Sister Mrs. James Speake of New Waterford Corps passed to her Heavenly Rest. Although a great sufferer from cancer, yet she was bright, and never lost her smile, even in the most trying circumstances.

The loss of this dear child left a void in the hearts of all. The will of God. She was a good Salvationist and died as she lived, trusting in God. The funeral services were conducted by Major Crichton, assisted by Captain L. E. Earle, Ensign and Mrs. Sparks and Lieutenant Dadd. In spite of the "flu" epidemic the services were largely attended. Our prayers and sympathy are with the bereaved husband and two sons in this their great loss.

Sister Mrs. Jublin, Gaspé

Our comrade passed peacefully away to be with Jesus on Saturday morning, Dec. 21st, at the age of 36 years. When the Army Hall was opened some few weeks ago to accommodate a few of the many patients suffering with Spanish influenza, Sister Mrs. Jublin worked nobly and energetically with several others until the cases were all recovered sufficient to go to their homes. Some days later, she too, became a victim of the disease, being ill about a week before she died. We buried her in the Salvation Army cemetery on Monday evening, Dec. 2nd. Ensign Speller conducted the funeral service, assisted by Captain Johnson and Captain Thornton, who sang a duet.

The following Sunday evening we held a Memorial Service. Sister Mrs. Dawson and another Alex Cross spoke of the good life our comrade had lived, of her self-sacrificing spirit and devotion to duty both as an Officer and Soldier. Sister L. Ryder soloed, and the Band which Brigadier Phillips of the Training College, prayed, mentioning the bereaved ones. "When the roll is called up yonder," was lined out by Colonel Turner, and sung feelingly. The portion of Scripture read by the Commissioner was from Paul's Epistles to the Corinthians and his comments thereon were most fitting.

Mrs. Brigadier Potter, who had been at the bedside of the Ensign during her illness and had sat up with her the night before she died, spoke of our deceased comrade's wife. She mentioned the fact that the Ensign was a Soldier of the Citadel Corps, and sold "War Cry" every week during her free afternoon. Mrs. Major Sims was with the Ensign during the night and day preceding to her death, and was at her bedside when she was promoted to Glory. Commandant and Mrs. Hanna, who have charge of the Kildonan Home, were most devolved in their attentions to the Ensign during her sickness.

After another song the service was brought to a close. Major Sims conducted the final service, which was opened with song. Sacred Scripture was read and Mrs. Commissioner Sowton, who was present, prayed, requesting that grace be given to the bereaved relatives of our last comrade.

Sister Mrs. Speake, New Waterford

promised "Promoted to Glory". The late Sister Jublin was a good and noble woman and will be very much missed by the Corps. Brother Jublin, it will be remembered, was kind in action to some of us.

The loss of this dear child left a void in the hearts of all. The will of God. She was a good Salvationist and died as she lived, trusting in God. The funeral services were conducted by Major Crichton, assisted by Captain L. E. Earle, Ensign and Mrs. Sparks and Lieutenant Dadd. In spite of the "flu" epidemic the services were largely attended. Our prayers and sympathy are with the bereaved husband and two sons in this their great loss.

Sister Mrs. Sparks, St. John L.

The dear angel visited the home of our dear Sergeant-Major on Saturday, Dec. 21st, at the age of 36 years. When the Army Hall was opened some few weeks ago to accommodate a few of the many patients suffering with Spanish influenza, Sister Mrs. Sparks for many years fought faithfully side by side with her husband as an Officer. They were stationed for some years in Newfoundland, Prince Edward Island, and two boys, and one daughter, and children to the fourth generation will ever remember the influence and prayers of this saint of God. To all of them we beseech kind sympathy.

Brother Enos Perry, Samson's Hill

Our late comrade gave his life for God while serving in the Army.

Mr. Smith, who had been a soldier and a teacher, was a man who had been greatly interested in the

Salvation Army, and had been assisted by Captain Johnson and Captain Thornton, who sang a duet.

The following Sunday evening we held a Memorial Service. Sister Mrs. Dawson and another Alex Cross spoke of the good life our comrade had lived, of her self-sacrificing spirit and devotion to duty both as an Officer and Soldier. Sister L. Ryder soloed, and the Band

Salvation meetings and a

As often as she was visited she was always found in a positive spirit—but anxious to the sake of her seven sons, the eldest son being of only a few hours old. "It's not what is to be with Jesus st. said to the Salvation Major, "Sing me into Heaven again, repeating the name of Him I loved so well, 'Saviour, Saviour, she slipped peacefully away.

General service was conducted by Brigadier Barr. There was over two hundred men in the united Bands of Nos. 1, 2, and 3, headed the procession. Six members of the Home League acted as band bearers. Mrs. Sparks being an ardent worker of the branch.

A very impressive Memorial Service was conducted by Brigadier Barr at the No. 1 Citadel. The Hall was packed—Band Sergeant and Adjutant Clark of the Evangeline Hospital paid beautiful tribute to our comrade's life. One of the most touching and yet most beautiful feature of the meeting was the request of the General Service to dedicate his life with his wife and children for fuller service to God. Five sons came to Jesus—E. E.

Sister Mrs. Blackwell, Petrolia

Once again we have to report loss in the person of Sister Mrs. Blackwell, better known as "Lena". Blackwell, who was recently promoted to Glory on Sunday evening, Dec. 29th. Though she was not able to be with us for some time and it was quite evident she was failing, yet she had been up almost till the last and her departure came most unexpected. She had reached the good old age of eighty-five years, many of which had been spent in faithful service to the Lord.

She left a bright testimony, based by the memory of a consistent Christian life. The funeral service was conducted by Adjutant Sparks on the following Tuesday afternoon.

A Memorial Service was held on Sunday night, when a number of us, including the General Service, attended. The General Service, her husband, and her frequent admittance to "Be faithful."

She leaves two sons and one daughter, and children to the fourth generation will ever remember the influence and prayers of this saint of God. To all of them we beseech kind sympathy.

Brother Enos Perry, Samson's Hill

Our late comrade gave his life for God while serving in the Army. Mr. Smith, who had been a soldier and a teacher, was a man who had been greatly interested in the

Salvation Army, and had been

assisted by Captain Johnson and Captain Thornton, who sang a duet.

The following Sunday evening we held a Memorial Service. Sister Mrs. Dawson and another Alex Cross spoke of the good life our comrade had lived, of her self-sacrificing spirit and devotion to duty both as an Officer and Soldier. Sister L. Ryder soloed, and the Band

Feb. 8, 1919

THE WAR CRY

13

WHAT'S DOING ROUND THE WORLD

EMPLOYMENT AGENCIES

THE Dominion and Provincial Governments are co-operating quickly and fairly. Employment Offices are being set up throughout Canada—agricultural, commercial, industrial, and domestic.

In all, some sixty Employment

MANY LANGUAGES

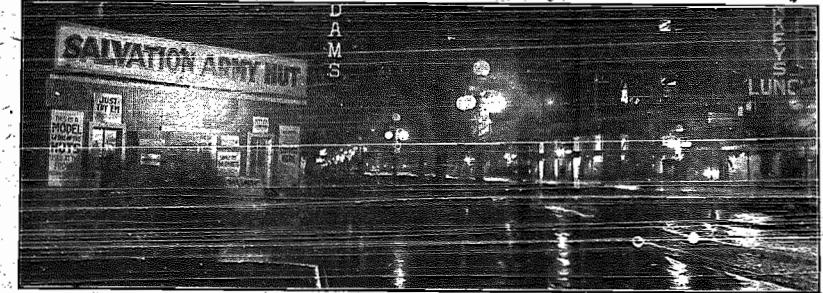

THE literature issued in connection with the War Savings and Thrift Stamps campaign indicates that Canada is a land of many nationalities. Already pamphlets have been printed in English, French, Italian, Swedish, Norwegian, Icelandic, Ruthenian, Polish, and Yiddish.

WHAT WILL BECOME OF IT?

AT the present moment the British Government is the largest user of men in France to protect them against poison gas. Within the next year or two most of this will be disposed of, and its disposal affords material for the most interesting experiments.

PEACE USES FOR MASKS

IT is announced that a number of the gas masks, lately used by our men in France to protect them against poison gas, are now to be disposed among British collieries (says the London "Daily Mail"). In the past many a life has been lost in the pits owing to the life-saving

When a Comfort Hut is a Comfort Hut Indeed—A Wet Night in Toronto

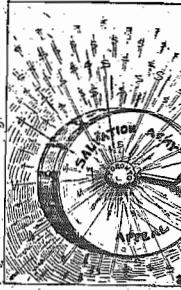

Offices are being established. They will be located in all centres of 10,000 people and over—and wherever the need for them exists. One-third of the money will be used.

Through these Government Employment Offices, all persons in need of employment, both male and female, will secure such positions as are available.

Through this same source an employer's particular needs will be promptly filled.

LEVIATHANS OF THE AIR

IN a document entitled "Notes on Airships for Commercial Purposes" the British Air Ministry predicts that in the near future large dirigibles, five thousand feet long, will be able to carry a load of 20,000 tons of freight, and will have a range of 20,000 miles and could stay in the air for three weeks.

PERSONAL THRIFT

CANADA, in common with the rest of the world, must husband her resources (says "Technology"). The stupendous material wastage caused by the war world must be made good by the world at large. Money has been lost in the last three years, which is a loss for men and women alike. It will leave the woman free for eight hours with her family, with nothing to do, and will lighten the economic problems enormously; also it will almost pay for quarry work.

The dynamite, of course, will come in for a share of almost everything.

Persons engaged in any of the languages already mentioned should communicate with either the National War Savings Committee, Ottawa, or any of the district committees in the various provinces.

LAUNCHED IN JANUARY

FOR the first time in many years the Canadian Army in Toronto were privileged to witness a launching in January, a most unusual occurrence, and it was necessary to have to blast ice to make a channel to receive the hull. The ship launched was the "General Currie," a transatlantic freighter.

PREFERRED COFFEE

IN relating incidents of the front an American soldier told one which helped explain the remarkable fighting qualities of America's soldiers. At one time the French sent our regiment three barrels of light wine," he said. "I sent them back and asked that they send three barrels of coffee instead."

Will you not help to make more desperate war on the strongholds of sin?

Do you realize that many people are dying every day without a knowledge of Salvation?

Can you slacken off in efforts to awaken them while they need your aid?

Will you not help to make more desperate war on the strongholds of sin?

(See "SHATTER THE SINNER"—Page 2)

Here's to the Good Spirit of the Salvation Army Huts!

The change that is coming is that we shall buy cooked food instead of raw. The preparation of food is going to be one of the trained professions.

WE ARE Looking For You A Glad Welcome Home!

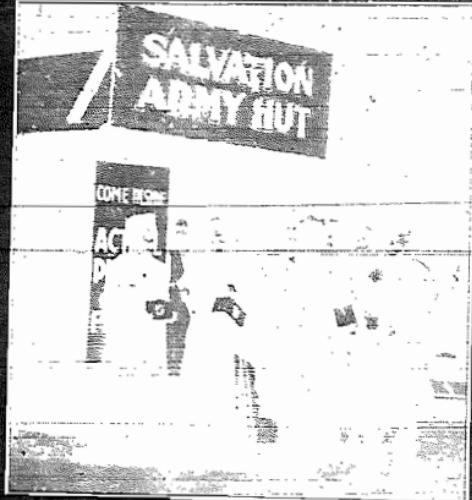

THE SALVATION ARMY OFFERS TO EVERY RETURNING SOLDIER THE HEARTIEST OF WELCOMES

Hostels where comfortable lodgings and good food may be obtained at reasonable prices have already been opened at Toronto, Winnipeg, London, Kingston, and Vancouver.

OTHERS ARE IN PROSPECT

All Salvationists, many of them returned men themselves, will be delighted to serve the home-coming or their relatives in any way possible.

Come to the Meetings at the Army Hall, and join in thanking God for victory, peace, and a safe return!

At Corner of Temperance and Yonge, Toronto

Salvation Army Hostels

WINNIPEG—Logan Avenue East, near Main Street

VANCOUVER—Gore Avenue (Naval and Military)

TORONTO—Corner King and Church Streets

KINGSTON—King and Clarence Streets

LONDON—York and Clarence Streets

QUEBEC—16 Palace Hill (Rest Room Only)

COMMISSIONER J.

Winnipeg—Grace Hospital
Feb. 9, Anniversary
Camrose—Wednesday, Feb.
Wetaskiwin—Thursday,
Edmonton—Friday, Feb.
ress Meeting).

Prince Rupert—Sunday
Port Simpson—Monday
Metlakatla—Wed., Feb. 19
Prince Rupert—Wed., Feb. 19
Anvok—Thurs. Sat., Feb. 20
New Metlakatla—Tues., Feb. 21
Kitcheeak—Thursday, Feb. 22

COLONEL TURNER

CHIEF SECRETARY

Winnipeg—Grace Hospital
Feb. 9, Anniversary
Brandon—Young People
Sunday, February 16
Saskatoon—Young People
Sunday, February 23

Brigadier Hay—Camrose
Feb. 12; Wetaskiwin, Thurs.
Edmonton—Frid., 14

Major Sims—Victoria, Sat.
Mar. 1-4; New Westmin.
Thurs. 6

Staff-Captain Smith—Edmonton
Frid., Feb. 14.

Songs of Salvation

WHEN THE ROLL IS CALLED

Tune: S.B., 154
When the trumpet of the Lord sound,

And time shall be no more,
And the morning breaks, so bright and fair;
When the saved of earth gather

Over on the other shore,
And the roll is called up to
I'll be there!

Chorus
When the roll is called up to
I'll be there!

On that bright and glorious morn,

When the dead in Christ are raised
And the glory of His Resurrection share—

When His chosen ones shall pass
To their home beyond the sea,
And the roll is called up to
I'll be there!

SEND THE FIRE!

Tunes: "Tucker," 125; "Christ Me," 124; S.B., 383

Thou Christ of burning, clear
Send the fire!
Thy Blood-bought gift to us
Send the fire!

Look down and see this world
Send us the promised Holy Ghost,

Send us the fire!
We want another Pentecost,

Send the fire!

God of Elijah, hear our cry
Send the fire!

He'll make night to live or die
Send the fire!

To burn up every trace of sin
To bring the light and glory in

The revolution now begin,
Send the fire!

To make our weak hearts bold
and brave,
Send the fire!

To live a dying world to save,
Send the fire!

Oh, see us on Thy altar lay
Our lives, our all, this very day
To cross the Jordan, and to

ARE OPEN TO ALL SERVICE MEN

ACTIVE OR RETURNED—IN OR OUT OF UNIFORM

BEDS FROM 30 CENTS UP

MEALS AND REFRESHMENTS AT REASONABLE RATES

THE USE OF REST, CORRESPONDENCE, AND LOUNGE ROOMS FREE

WEBSITE: www.sabellator.ca E-MAIL: info@sabellator.ca

1000 Bloor Street West, Suite 1000, Toronto, Ontario, M5S 1E6, Canada

Telephone: 416-596-1000, Fax: 416-596-1001, E-mail: info@sabellator.ca

1000 Bloor Street West, Suite 1000, Toronto, Ontario, M5S 1E6, Canada

Telephone: 416-596-1000, Fax: 416-596-1001, E-mail: info@sabellator.ca

1000 Bloor Street West, Suite 1000, Toronto, Ontario, M5S 1E6, Canada

Telephone: 416-596-1000, Fax: 416-596-1001, E-mail: info@sabellator.ca

1000 Bloor Street West, Suite 1000, Toronto, Ontario, M5S 1E6, Canada

Telephone: 416-596-1000, Fax: 416-596-1001, E-mail: info@sabellator.ca

1000 Bloor Street West, Suite 1000, Toronto, Ontario, M5S 1E6, Canada

Telephone: 416-596-1000, Fax: 416-596-1001, E-mail: info@sabellator.ca

1000 Bloor Street West, Suite 1000, Toronto, Ontario, M5S 1E6, Canada

Telephone: 416-596-1000, Fax: 416-596-1001, E-mail: info@sabellator.ca

1000 Bloor Street West, Suite 1000, Toronto, Ontario, M5S 1E6, Canada

Telephone: 416-596-1000, Fax: 416-596-1001, E-mail: info@sabellator.ca

1000 Bloor Street West, Suite 1000, Toronto, Ontario, M5S 1E6, Canada

Telephone: 416-596-1000, Fax: 416-596-1001, E-mail: info@sabellator.ca

1000 Bloor Street West, Suite 1000, Toronto, Ontario, M5S 1E6, Canada

Telephone: 416-596-1000, Fax: 416-596-1001, E-mail: info@sabellator.ca

1000 Bloor Street West, Suite 1000, Toronto, Ontario, M5S 1E6, Canada

Telephone: 416-596-1000, Fax: 416-596-1001, E-mail: info@sabellator.ca

1000 Bloor Street West, Suite 1000, Toronto, Ontario, M5S 1E6, Canada

Telephone: 416-596-1000, Fax: 416-596-1001, E-mail: info@sabellator.ca

1000 Bloor Street West, Suite 1000, Toronto, Ontario, M5S 1E6, Canada

Telephone: 416-596-1000, Fax: 416-596-1001, E-mail: info@sabellator.ca

1000 Bloor Street West, Suite 1000, Toronto, Ontario, M5S 1E6, Canada

Telephone: 416-596-1000, Fax: 416-596-1001, E-mail: info@sabellator.ca

1000 Bloor Street West, Suite 1000, Toronto, Ontario, M5S 1E6, Canada

Telephone: 416-596-1000, Fax: 416-596-1001, E-mail: info@sabellator.ca

1000 Bloor Street West, Suite 1000, Toronto, Ontario, M5S 1E6, Canada

Telephone: 416-596-1000, Fax: 416-596-1001, E-mail: info@sabellator.ca

1000 Bloor Street West, Suite 1000, Toronto, Ontario, M5S 1E6, Canada

Telephone: 416-596-1000, Fax: 416-596-1001, E-mail: info@sabellator.ca

1000 Bloor Street West, Suite 1000, Toronto, Ontario, M5S 1E6, Canada

Telephone: 416-596-1000, Fax: 416-596-1001, E-mail: info@sabellator.ca

1000 Bloor Street West, Suite 1000, Toronto, Ontario, M5S 1E6, Canada

Telephone: 416-596-1000, Fax: 416-596-1001, E-mail: info@sabellator.ca

1000 Bloor Street West, Suite 1000, Toronto, Ontario, M5S 1E6, Canada

Telephone: 416-596-1000, Fax: 416-596-1001, E-mail: info@sabellator.ca

1000 Bloor Street West, Suite 1000, Toronto, Ontario, M5S 1E6, Canada

Telephone: 416-596-1000, Fax: 416-596-1001, E-mail: info@sabellator.ca

1000 Bloor Street West, Suite 1000, Toronto, Ontario, M5S 1E6, Canada

Telephone: 416-596-1000, Fax: 416-596-1001, E-mail: info@sabellator.ca

1000 Bloor Street West, Suite 1000, Toronto, Ontario, M5S 1E6, Canada

Telephone: 416-596-1000, Fax: 416-596-1001, E-mail: info@sabellator.ca

1000 Bloor Street West, Suite 1000, Toronto, Ontario, M5S 1E6, Canada

Telephone: 416-596-1000, Fax: 416-596-1001, E-mail: info@sabellator.ca

1000 Bloor Street West, Suite 1000, Toronto, Ontario, M5S 1E6, Canada

Telephone: 416-596-1000, Fax: 416-596-1001, E-mail: info@sabellator.ca

1000 Bloor Street West, Suite 1000, Toronto, Ontario, M5S 1E6, Canada

Telephone: 416-596-1000, Fax: 416-596-1001, E-mail: info@sabellator.ca

1000 Bloor Street West, Suite 1000, Toronto, Ontario, M5S 1E6, Canada

Telephone: 416-596-1000, Fax: 416-596-1001, E-mail: info@sabellator.ca

1000 Bloor Street West, Suite 1000, Toronto, Ontario, M5S 1E6, Canada

Telephone: 416-596-1000, Fax: 416-596-1001, E-mail: info@sabellator.ca

1000 Bloor Street West, Suite 1000, Toronto, Ontario, M5S 1E6, Canada

Telephone: 416-596-1000, Fax: 416-596-1001, E-mail: info@sabellator.ca

1000 Bloor Street West, Suite 1000, Toronto, Ontario, M5S 1E6, Canada

Telephone: 416-596-1000, Fax: 416-596-1001, E-mail: info@sabellator.ca

1000 Bloor Street West, Suite 1000, Toronto, Ontario, M5S 1E6, Canada

Telephone: 416-596-1000, Fax: 416-596-1001, E-mail: info@sabellator.ca

1000 Bloor Street West, Suite 1000, Toronto, Ontario, M5S 1E6, Canada

Telephone: 416-596-1000, Fax: 416-596-1001, E-mail: info@sabellator.ca

1000 Bloor Street West, Suite 1000, Toronto, Ontario, M5S 1E6, Canada

Telephone: 416-596-1000, Fax: 416-596-1001, E-mail: info@sabellator.ca

1000 Bloor Street West, Suite 1000, Toronto, Ontario, M5S 1E6, Canada

Telephone: 416-596-1000, Fax: 416-596-1001, E-mail: info@sabellator.ca

1000 Bloor Street West, Suite 1000, Toronto, Ontario, M5S 1E6, Canada

Telephone: 416-596-1000, Fax: 416-596-1001, E-mail: info@sabellator.ca

1000 Bloor Street West, Suite 1000, Toronto, Ontario, M5S 1E6, Canada

Telephone: 416-596-1000, Fax: 416-596-1001, E-mail: info@sabellator.ca

1000 Bloor Street West, Suite 1000, Toronto, Ontario, M5S 1E6, Canada

Telephone: 416-596-1000, Fax: 416-596-1001, E-mail: info@sabellator.ca

1000 Bloor Street West, Suite 1000, Toronto, Ontario, M5S 1E6, Canada

Telephone: 416-596-1000, Fax: 416-596-1001, E-mail: info@sabellator.ca

1000 Bloor Street West, Suite 1000, Toronto, Ontario, M5S 1E6, Canada

Telephone: 416-596-1000, Fax: 416-596-1001, E-mail: info@sabellator.ca

1000 Bloor Street West, Suite 1000, Toronto, Ontario, M5S 1E6, Canada

Telephone: 416-596-1000, Fax: 416-596-1001, E-mail: info@sabellator.ca

1000 Bloor Street West, Suite 1000, Toronto, Ontario, M5S 1E6, Canada

Telephone: 416-596-1000, Fax: 416-596-1001, E-mail: info@sabellator.ca

1000 Bloor Street West, Suite 1000, Toronto, Ontario, M5S 1E6, Canada

Telephone: 416-596-1000, Fax: 416-596-1001, E-mail: info@sabellator.ca

1000 Bloor Street West, Suite 1000, Toronto, Ontario, M5S 1E6, Canada

Telephone: 416-596-1000, Fax: 416-596-1001, E-mail: info@sabellator.ca

1000 Bloor Street West, Suite 1000, Toronto, Ontario, M5S 1E6, Canada

Telephone: 416-596-1000, Fax: 416-596-1001, E-mail: info@sabellator.ca

1000 Bloor Street West, Suite 1000, Toronto, Ontario, M5S 1E6, Canada

Telephone: 416-596-1000, Fax: 416-596-1001, E-mail: info@sabellator.ca

1000 Bloor Street West, Suite 1000, Toronto, Ontario, M5S 1E6, Canada

Telephone: 416-596-1000, Fax: 416-596-1001, E-mail: info@sabellator.ca

1000 Bloor Street West, Suite 1000, Toronto, Ontario, M5S 1E6, Canada

Telephone: 416-596-1000, Fax: 416-596-1001, E-mail: info@sabellator.ca

1000 Bloor Street West, Suite 1000, Toronto, Ontario, M5S 1E6, Canada

Telephone: 416-596-1000, Fax: 416-596-1001, E-mail: info@sabellator.ca

1000 Bloor Street West, Suite 1000, Toronto, Ontario, M5S 1E6, Canada

Telephone: 416-596-1000, Fax: 416-596-1001, E-mail: info@sabellator.ca

1000 Bloor Street West, Suite 1000, Toronto, Ontario, M5S 1E6, Canada

Telephone: 416-596-1000, Fax: 416-596-1001, E-mail: info@sabellator.ca

1000 Bloor Street West, Suite 1000, Toronto, Ontario, M5S 1E6, Canada

Telephone: 416-596-1000, Fax: 416-596-1001, E-mail: info@sabellator.ca

1000 Bloor Street West, Suite 1000, Toronto, Ontario, M5S 1E6, Canada

Telephone: 416-596-1000, Fax: 416-596-1001, E-mail: info@sabellator.ca

1000 Bloor Street West, Suite 1000, Toronto, Ontario, M5S 1E6, Canada

Telephone: 416-596-1000, Fax: 416-596-1001, E-mail: info@sabellator.ca

1000 Bloor Street West, Suite 1000, Toronto, Ontario, M5S 1E6, Canada

Telephone: 416-596-1000, Fax: 416-596-1001, E-mail: info@sabellator.ca

1000 Bloor Street West, Suite 1000, Toronto, Ontario, M5S 1E6, Canada

Telephone: 416-596-1000, Fax: 416-596-1001, E-mail: info@sabellator.ca

1000 Bloor Street West, Suite 1000, Toronto, Ontario, M5S 1E6, Canada

Telephone: 416-596-1000, Fax: 416-596-1001, E-mail: info@sabellator.ca

1000 Bloor Street West, Suite 1000, Toronto, Ontario, M5S 1E6, Canada

Telephone: 416-596-1000, Fax: 416-596-1001, E-mail: info@sabellator.ca

1000 Bloor Street West, Suite 1000, Toronto, Ontario, M5S 1E6, Canada

Telephone: 416-596-1000, Fax: 416-596-1001, E-mail: info@sabellator.ca

1000 Bloor Street West, Suite 1000, Toronto, Ontario, M5S 1E6, Canada

Telephone: 416-596-1000, Fax: 416-596-1001, E-mail: info@sabellator.ca

1000 Bloor Street West, Suite 1000, Toronto, Ontario, M5S 1E6, Canada

Telephone: 416-596-1000, Fax: 416-596-1001, E-mail: info@sabellator.ca

1000 Bloor Street West, Suite 1000, Toronto, Ontario, M5S 1E6, Canada

Telephone: 416-596-1000, Fax: 416-596-1001, E-mail: info@sabellator.ca

1000 Bloor Street West, Suite 1000, Toronto, Ontario, M5S 1E6, Canada

Telephone: 416-596-1000, Fax: 416-596-1001, E-mail: <a href